Dear Collector:

Welcome to CATALOGUE VI, my latest fixed price list of numismatic literature. The recent acquisition of several large and important numismatic libraries has afforded me the opportunity to offer a wide variety of references, periodicals and auction catalogues which should appeal to a broad spectrum of collector interests.

Our first MAIL BID SALE, held December 8, 1981, was well received, and for this, I would like to extend my most sincere gratitude to all of you who participated. Every lot was sold - generally at favorable prices to the bidders. In many instances, lots were obtained well below maximum bids. As many of you may know, the highlight of the sale was the nearly complete set of THE NUMISMATIST, which lacked only the 1902 volume. The beautifully bound set sold for what I believe is a new record price at public sale - $3,500.00. If any of you have a complete 1902 volume that you would like to sell, I would be most interested in buying it, as the purchaser of the set is quite anxious to complete it.

I am presently accepting consignments for my second MAIL BID SALE, which is tentatively scheduled to close on May 15. Plans call for a sale of nearly two thousand lots, and I can still accept about three hundred pieces if I receive them by March 27. If you are considering disposing of your library, or important duplicates, please write for complete consignment information.

I am also pleased to announce that I have now moved into my new shop in the beautiful Glenmoor Shopping Center here in Fremont. Office hours are 10:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. (P.S.T), Monday through Friday, and by appointment on weekends. The new phone number is (415) 792-4133.

Some of the highlights of this catalogue include a copy of Sylvester S. Crosby's THE EARLY COINS OF AMERICA (1875); three copies of M. W. Dickeson's AMERICAN NUMISMATIC MANUAL; F. W. Doughty's THE CENTS OF THE UNITED STATES (1890); a deluxe leather bound thick paper copy of H. R. Newcomb's classic UNITED STATES COPPER CENTS 1816-1857 (1944); three copies of D. W. Valentines THE UNITED STATES HALF DIMES; and many other fine works on American numismatics.

General works include books by such luminaries as Eckfeldt & Du Bois, A. M. Smith and J. R. Snowden. There are also a number of important works covering ancient numismatics.

For the collector of auction catalogues, will find a large number of the more modern series, including a nearly complete run of the popular Bowers & Ruddy sales; a nice selection of New Netherlands catalogues; and more than 170 Stack's catalogues. There are also a number of catalogues by such well known dealers as Bolender, Henry Chapman, Edward Cogan, Tom Elder, Ed. Frossard, Ben Green, James Kelly, B. Max Mehl, Ben Johnson and others.

Again, my sincere thanks for your past patronage and support, and I look forward to hearing from you in the very near future. If you cannot find material you are seeking in this catalogue, please feel free to send me your want list, and I will do my best to locate the items.

Best regards,

Cal Wilson

NOTE: In order to offer as many auction catalogues as possible, the descriptions will basically be limited to the date(s) of each sale, number of pages, number of lots, and whether or not the catalogue contains prices realized list (prl.). In some cases, prl's will be in the form of a photocopy, and will be so identified by the term pprl. With regard to early (pre-1920) auction catalogues, all can be considered to be in "good antiquarian" condition, unless otherwise stated. Covers and pages may be lightly chipped or flaked; there may be minor soiling; occasionally these catalogues, due to their small size, have been folded and/or creased. Any serious defects will be noted. Modern catalogues should be considered to be in fine or better condition unless otherwise noted.
